TRANSLATION OF LETTER TO MR. ALLEN DULLES

Miami, Florida
January 2, 1961

Mr. Allen Dulles, CIA
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

I am a person with democratic sentiments and also a great sympathizer of the American government and people. I have been persecuted and jailed by the Communist government of Fidel Castro and thanks to the generosity of the American people I find myself in the city of Miami. I wish to manifest to you that I am always at your disposal to serve and help you within my power.

I could serve the American government through my connections with Cuban residents in Miami whose sympathies I enjoy with almost all of them, but my economic resources do not permit me to move. If you could help me with some money and an automobile perhaps it would be very useful. Believe me that I make this request for assistance only to help in combatting the red dictatorship of Cuba, the tyrant, Fidel Castro.

I await your reply. Consider me at your service in every means. I am confident of receiving your assistance.

Yours with greatest consideration,
